Saturday, 4th February, 2017

Stewards: Sharon Dunn, Theresa Evert and Jennifer Miller

The Winner of the competition becomes Berry Showgirl 2017 and holds that title for one year, during which time she will represent Berry Show Society at the Zone Finals in February. If successful there, she will be a guest of the Royal Agricultural Society at the Royal Easter Show in Sydney for five days in April 2017. The winner will also be involved with functions associated with Berry Show Society during her twelve months as Berry Showgirl, 2017. The announcement of the winner will be made at Berry Show on Saturday, 4th February, 2017 at approximately 7.30pm.

The contestants are judged on personality, confidence, ambition and life goals, general knowledge, rural knowledge, presentation and speech. Finalists are also asked to demonstrate knowledge of their local community and current affairs and apart from their potential ambassadorial qualities, contestants are also judged on their involvement in and experience of rural affairs.

All contestants are required to wear smart day-wear during their day interview and judging lunch. The evening function is a fairly formal occasion and it is therefore required for all finalists to be in evening wear.
