

SHOWGIRL – SECTION 7

ANNOUNCEMENT 2ND FEBRUARY 2019 APPROX 7.30PM

Co-Ordinator: Therese Evert

The winner of the competition becomes Berry Showgirl 2019 and holds that title for the one year, during which time she will represent Berry Show Society at the Zone Finals in March.

If successful there, she will be a guest of the Royal Agricultural Society at the Royal Easter Show in Sydney for five days in April 2019. The winner will also be involved with functions associated with Berry Show Society during her twelve months as Berry Showgirl. The announcement of the will be made at the Berry show on Saturday 2nd February, 2019 at approximately 7.30pm.

The contestants are judged on personality, confidence, ambition, life goals, general knowledge, rural knowledge, presentation, speech and community participation.

Finalists are also asked to demonstrate knowledge of their local community and current and apart from their potential ambassadorial qualities, contestants are also judged on their involvement in and experience of rural affairs. All contestants are required to wear smart daywear during their day interview and judging lunch. The evening function is a fairly formal occasion and it is therefore a requirement for all finalists to be in evening wear.
